

Under NCLB schools must provide directory information, upon request, to military and college recruiters. Parents have the right to “opt out” and must notify White Pigeon High School to do so.